

Supplier Diversity & Responsible Sourcing Team in partnership with the Bank of America Institute for Women's Entrepreneurship at Cornell

Invitation to enroll in an online certificate program for women entrepreneurs

The Bank of America Supplier Diversity & Responsible Sourcing Team proudly extends the opportunity to participate in an online course for women entrepreneurs as part of the Bank of America Institute for Women's Entrepreneurship at Cornell. This certificate program will provide participants no-cost access to a virtual learning experience conducted by Cornell faculty. With a limited number of slots available, participation is by invitation only.

Program Details

- The program, designed for women who are typically in the first seven years of starting, running or expanding a business, is now being offered to you as a diverse-owned business
- It is a two-week long, six-course program, offered in English or Spanish*
- Course list:
 - Creating Your Venture
 - Laying the Legal Building Blocks for Your Venture
 - Assessing and Obtaining Financial Resources for Your Venture
 - Growth Leadership for Female Entrepreneurs
 - Product Development and Digital Marketing
 - Communications, Negotiation and Persuasiveness
- Upon completion of the six courses, participants will receive a Certificate in Women's Entrepreneurship from Cornell University

*Spanish language program to begin June 2021, however participants may enroll now and will be notified when classes will begin.

Enrollment

Enrollment begins in May 2021; find out more here. To express interest in participating, please click English enrollment or Spanish enrollment and enter the required information at the bottom of the page. If you have any other questions, contact us at supplierdiversity_questions@bofa.com.

Please do not share this information as it is part of a special offering.